WM. E. PELL, PROPRIETOR.

A Thrilling Adventure.

I was a medical student in Paris at the time the strange and startling adventure happened which I am about to record.—Tired with long lectures and hard study, I was out one evening for a walk in the fresh air. It was a pleasant night in mid-winter, and the cold, bracing air, as it touched my feverish brow, caused a grateful sensation.

Passing through a rather lonely street, near the river, I was surprised at meeting a young and pretty girl, (at least so she appeared in the dim light of a rather distant street lamp,) who carried in her hand some three or four bouquets, which she offered for sale.

"Will monsieur have a bouquet?" she asked, in a sweet, musical tone, holding out to me a well arranged collection of beautiful flowers.

"They are pretty," said I, taking them in my hand, and then, somehow, I could not help adding, as I fixed my eyes upon her's, "and so, I think, is their fair owner."

"Monsieur will buy and assist me?" she said.

"Do you really need assistance, mademoiselle?"

"Why else should I be here at this hour of the night, monsieur?"

"And why here at all?" quickly returned I. "This street is little frequented, and it is about the last in the world I should have selected for disposing of a luxury most suited to wealth and fashion."

She sighed and reached out her hand for the bouquet, which I still retained.

"What is your price?"

"Five francs."

"A large sum."

"Monsieur will remember it is winter, and flowers are not plenty."

"To aid you, I will purchase," returned I, handing her the requisite coin; "for, though I love flowers, I would otherwise hardly indulge in the luxury to night at such an expense."

She thanked me, and seemed about to pass on, but hesitated, looked up to me, and said:

"Could Monsieur direct me to the house of a good physician, who will turn out to-night and see a patient at a small recompense?"

"Any friend of yours ill?"

"My mother!" with a deep sigh and downcast look.

"Where does she reside?"

"Only a short distance from here."

"What is the matter with her?"

"She has a high fever for one thing."

"When was she taken?"

"She came down last night and has not left her bed since."

"Why did you not send for a doctor at once?"

"We hoped she would get better soon, and it is so expensive for poor people to employ a physician."

"I am myself a medical student, with considerable experience among the sick of the hospitals; and if you are disposed to trust the case to me, I am at your service without charge," I rejoined, already feeling deeply interested in the fair girl.

"Oh, how I shall thank monsieur!" she exclaimed, with clasped hands and an upward, grateful look. "Pray follow me, Monsieur le Docteur."

She turned at once and moved off at a rapid pace down the street, toward the river Seine, in the direction I was walking when we met.

In less than five minutes we had entered a wretched quarter, among narrow streets, old, tottering buildings, and squalid looking inhabitants, some of whom seemed to glare at us as we passed along.

"Is it much further?" inquired I, beginning to feel uneasy.

"Only a step, monsieur; it is just here."

Almost immediately she turned into a covered passage, which led in back among habitations that I should never have voluntarily visited in the broad light of day. A dis ant lamp served to make the gloom visible, till she suddenly stopped and opened a door into total darkness.

"Your hand, Monsieur le Docteur," she said, at the same time taking it and leading me forward.

I was tempted to draw back and refuse to go any further, though I mechanically followed her.

We now went through a long, narrow passage, in total darkness, and after two or three short turns, began to descend a flight of creaking, rotten stairs.

"Is it possible you live in a place like this?" said I, secretly wishing myself safely out of it.

"In Paris beggars cannot be choosers," replied the girl.

"But even in Paris it is not necessary for the living to take up their abode in sepulchres!" I rejoined with some asperity, being vexed at myself for suffering my good nature to lead me into a den from which I might never come out alive.

To this my fair guide deigned no reply. On reaching the foot of the stairs she pushed open the door into a small, dimly lighted room, and I followed her into it with some secret misgivings. There was a bed in one corner, and on it appeared to be a human form lying very still.

"I have brought a doctor, mother," said the girl, as she closed the door behind me. As there was no reply to this she turned to me, saying:

"Will Monsieur le Docteur please to be seated a minute? I think my mother is asleep."

"I beg mademoiselle will bear in mind that I can only spare a few moments in this case to-night, as I have another call I wish to make immediately," I returned, feeling very anxious to depart from that subterranean quarter as quick as possible.

"Monsieur shall not be detained long by me," rejoined the girl, passing out of the room by another door.

I did not sit down, but walked over to the bed, where the patient was lying very still—so still indeed that I could not detect any breathing. The woman's cap was on the head, and the end of a sheet concealed the face. I ventured to turn this down carefully, and behold the eyeless sockets and grinning teeth of a human skull!

I started back in horror, and, at the same time, the door by which the girl had left was thrown open, and in marched, one after the other, four tall human forms in black gowns and masks. I knew at once, then, that I was to be robbed, and probably murdered. I wore a heavy diamond pin and ring, carried a very valuable gold watch, and had in money about my person some 500 francs, but not a single weapon of any kind—resistance being, therefore, out of the question. I felt that my only chance—if, indeed, there was a chance—was to conciliate the ruffians and buy myself off. With a presence of mind for which I still take to myself considerable credit, I said at once:

"I understand it all, gentlemen, and you will find me a very liberal person to deal with. There is one thing I value very highly, because it is the only one I have, and I cannot replace it;—that is my life.—Everything else of mine is at your service, even beyond what I have with me."

They were undoubtedly surprised to hear me speak in that cool, off-handed manner, but they marched forward and surrounded me before either returned a word.

"How much have you with you, then?" inquired one, in a civil way, but in a low, gruff tone.

I immediately mentioned the different articles of value and the exact amount of money; "all of which I shall be pleased to present you with, if you will be kind enough to escort me to the street above," I added.

"You said you had more, monsieur."

"Yes, gentlemen, I have 10,000 francs in the bank of France, and I will willingly add a check for half that amount."

"Checks don't answer our purposes very well," said a second voice.

"Then I pledge you my honor that I will, to-morrow, draw out 5,000 francs and pay the same over to any person who may approach me with this boquet in his hand," said I, holding out the flowers that I had purchased of the fair decoy.

"And have him arrested the next minute, I suppose."

"No; on my honor he shall depart unharmed and unquestioned, and no other human being shall be informed of the transaction for a week, a month or a year."

"Let us handle what you have here," said the first speaker.

I immediately took out my pin, took off my ring, drew out my watch, produced my pocket book and purse, and placed them all in his extended hand.

"You make us a present of these, now," he said.

"Yes, on condition that one of you will forthwith conduct me to the street above," I replied.

"Monsieur is a very liberal gentleman, indeed!" was the response.

They then drew off together, scrutinized the articles by the light of a smoky lamp, and conversed together in low tones. I felt that they were holding a consultation that involved my life, and, to speak the honest truth, it seemed as if every nerve in me quivered; and it was with difficulty I could stand.

At length the principal spokesman turned to me and said, in a cool and methodical manner:

"Monsieur has acted more like a gentleman than any person we ever had dealings with, and if we could, consistent with our business, oblige him, we would be happy to do so; but, unfortunately, we are governed by a rule, which is a law with us, that dead men tell no tales, and we think it will not do to make an exception in this case. We will, however, in consideration of monsieur's gentlemanly behavior, be as mild and lenient as possible in doing our duty, and grant monsieur five minutes for saying his prayers."

"You have then resolved to murder me?" gasped I.

"Monsieur uses a very hard term, but we will let that pass. You have five minutes yet to live by this watch."

The villain then held my watch to the light and I felt indeed that my minutes were numbered, and secretly began to pray for the salvation of my soul, believing that I could not save my body.

A death-like silence now reigned in that gloomy apartment for some time, and then one of the ruffians bent down and lifted a trap door, and from the dark pit below issued a noisome smell, as it might be, of putrid bodies. I beheld my intended grave, and shuddered and looked aspen.

But why stand there and die like a dog, without a single attempt at escape? At the worst it could be but death, and there was a bare possibility I might get away. I fixed my eyes on the door which opened on the stairway, and with a single sudden bound reached it, but found it fast locked. Then, as the hands of the ruffians seized me with murderous intent, I uttered a wild shriek, the door was burst in with a loud crash, and in a moment the room was filled with gens d'armes. I saw that I was saved, and fainted and fell.

The four masks, the fair decoy and some two or three others concerned in that murderous den, were all secured that night, and I subsequently had the pleasure of giving in my evidence against them, and seeing them all condemned to the galleys for life.

The place had for some time been suspected, and the decoy marked. On that night a detective had secretly followed the girl and myself, and, after ascertaining whither she had conducted me, had hastened to bring a body of gens d'armes to the place. The delay of the ruffians in their murderous designs had been just sufficient to save me. I scarcely need add that I never again volunteered to accompany a distressed damsel on a secret expedition while I remained in Paris.

ÆTNA LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY has paid another loss. Read the following:

$3.000.

WILMINGTON, Sept. 16th, 1868.

Received of the Ætna Life Insurance Company, by the hands of W. H. Crow, General Agent, Three thousand dollars, in full payment of all demands upon the Life Policy of my deceased husband, Larkin F. Bunn. No. of said Policy 33,793.

With many thanks for this prompt payment in the hour of my affliction and need,

I am, respectfully,

HESTER A. BUNN.

Added to the above, may be mentioned another fact, proving the wisdom and beneficial results of Life Insurance, and also the fidelity and good faith in which this old and well tried Company deals with its members.

In less than three years this Company has done more than all others combined, to relieve the wants of the widows and orphans of North Carolina.

It has paid Policy, No.	15,273	....	$5,000

STATE AFFAIRS.

The election of Gen. Grant to the Presidency, and the fact that the Congress of the United States will continue to be strongly Radical, and, hence, cannot be claimed or expected to be interested in the material interests of North Carolina or the South, beyond the care which it may bestow upon the negro race and the "lonely loil,"—while these facts, we say, remove, for the present, National politics from the consideration of the Democrats and Conservatives of this State, it would be singularly unfortunate were they to become so discouraged, as to abandon all interest in State affairs.—The election of a President will not concern our people again, for at least four years to come, if ever, nor can they be interested in the election of members of Congress or of a State Legislature in much less than two years; and regarding Congressional reconstruction as a fixed fact, not to be disturbed or changed in its material aspects, only in conformity with the Constitution of the United States, such as it now is and will be in the next four years, still there are material matters connected with our State government, and the economical interests of the people, which cannot be overlooked or neglected, if North Carolina is ever to assume any respectability as a State or enter upon a career of prosperity.

Our Northern allies, having failed to obtain such a foot-hold in the general government as would enable them to afford us any encouragement from that source, for the present, to mitigate our condition or afford us any material help, it would be suicidal in us to adopt such a policy of non-action and indifference, as to the conduct of our State government, as would increase our difficulties and render our condition more miserable and helpless.

It must be palpable to every honest observer, who has been careful to look into the history of the State, that the control of its affairs has been placed, by the incapacity of the negro race to select proper representatives, either of their own interests or those of the whites, in the hands of the most ignorant, incompetent, depraved and irresponsible corps of agents ever before entrusted with governmental affairs. The few men of intelligence and virtue, whom necessity or whatever else may have driven into the ranks of Radicalism, have been, for the most part, ignored or shoved aside, to make place for the more pretentious and forward, but more ignorant, agents, whose incapacity has made them a by-word and laughing stock, even in their own party.—Even the more intelligent colored people in the State begin to see this.

The Executive is known to be only a shrewd politician, whose knowledge of law and governmental affairs is so really slender, that, with all his shrewdness as a politician, he has not yet perceived his own unfitness for the position, and contents himself, at the risk of a blunder at every step, with consulting the so-called Attorney General, whose legal opinions are not worth the paper upon which they are written. Perhaps no other State officer is quite so inefficient as the Attorney General, but they all compare so poorly with their predecessors, that we have no doubt, as soon as the public have an opportunity of judging more fully of their qualifications, their incompetency will be made the more palpable. This estimate of the qualifications of the officiary of the State, as a general rule, will hold good in the County and municipal officers.

But it is especially in the character of the Judiciary and the Legislature, that this incompetency and inefficiency will appear most glaring. Without the aid of the one or two sensible lawyers on the Code Commission, whose legal ability and originality of thought, however, have not been very apparent in what they have already done, and the intelligent Conservative or Democratic members of the body, it is hardly conceivable to what lengths in bad legislation the present General Assembly would not reach. Its extravagance has already passed all bounds of propriety, honesty or reason. It is really apprehended that, without some additional check upon it, within the two years yet to come, for which they were elected, they will so utterly bankrupt the State, that every man will have to become a carpet bagger, to reduce all his means to green-backs or government bonds, so that his resources can be kept ready packed up at any moment, to be off when the crash comes, rather than be the possessor of any real property upon which the tax-gatherer can gorge.

The character of our State Judiciary has been so completely metamorphosed by the change, that men will seriously hesitate whether to resort to the Courts for the protection of life, liberty or property, or take their chances in a rough and tumble scrimmage with their neighbors, in the defence of either.

We intend no personal unfriendness to any one by these remarks; nor are they dictated by any partisan feeling or in the spirit of harshness. We are giving utterance to the views and to the fears and the impressions of thousands of the most intelligent, virtuous and law abiding people of the State.

Now, we say, this state of things must be changed, and it must be done, as soon as it can be done peaceably and legitimately. We must have competent men in office. We must have competent legislators and a learned and efficient Judiciary. We must have wise laws and have them properly administered. We must have an economical and a wise administration of the government. Labor must be protected and promoted, and the property of the people, what little they have, must be put under a proper guardianship. These are matters, in which every man, black and white, is deeply interested. The colored men, women and children especially need them. This is no partisan matter. One party is as much concerned in it as the other. To have these is what the whole community needs, nor can it injure really any one, not even the beggarly office-seeker himself, who will stoop to any thing to obtain a position to save him from work or from the proper responsibilities of manhood.

We say THERE MUST BE A CHANGE. And in order to effect it, there must be an organization, composed of every voter in the State, who feels an interest for the general welfare of the people, beyond and above what he feels for himself, and who has any concern for the future prosperity and respectability of the State. And we would suggest that the people begin AT ONCE to consider these matters and to effect this organization, in order to the call of a State meeting of delegates, to consult upon these great matters of public and general concern.

QUIET ELECTION.

From every section of the State the news is that the late election was one of the most quiet we have had. In this city, it was remarkably so,—no one, either white or black, manifesting any disposition to violate order. Sheriff Lee and his aids deserve credit for their efficient action. Eating some errors in judgment, as to the meaning of the law, in some instances, the Registrar, Mr. Andrews, acted with entire propriety.

We anticipated this general quietude, not because we had troops in the State, but because we knew of the peaceable disposition of our people, and the purpose of the Democrats and Conservatives to avoid all causes of collision. The fact that the colored people would exercise the right of suffrage, we knew, also, would not excite ill-feeling toward them. Every one knew that they were not responsible for possessing that franchise, and that its exercise by them was a foregone conclusion. All that the whites desired was that they should act wisely and not be misled by designing men. The result, so far as they are concerned, did not disappoint the whites,—they voted generally as was expected.

This general disposition of the whites to have a peaceable election is, perhaps, the chief cause of the quiet among us. And we are glad to be able to say, that our colored population have acted with unwonted propriety throughout. This peaceable spirit among the people was greatly assisted by the general compliance, on the part of liquor dealers, with the law prohibiting it to be sold or given away. We have never had so little drunkenness pending an election. We hope this custom will become general.

The following card from Jno. T. Deweese, which appeared in the Standard of yesterday, shows how utterly ignorant he is of the character of our people. There is not a more peaceable community anywhere than that of Warren county. John Hyman, the colored delegate from that county, knew far better than Deweese the character of the people he represented, and if Deweese's feelings towards that people had been peaceable, he would have taken Hyman's advice. But what authority has he to have the troops ordered about? He "takes the responsibility," where he had none! Gen. Miles was alone responsible, and if he is simply a tool of wax, to be led by Deweese, it is plain he does not feel his "responsibility" as he should. But the card is only a little vaporing of Deweese's, probably demanded by Hyman. We cannot believe Gen. Miles sent troops to Warren on Deweese's "responsibility." He knows, as well as any one, how much gas there is about the "Col.," and we are sure he would not have sent troops to Warren, except at the request of "Gov." Holden, who alone had the right to request Gen. Miles to send them. Deweese's card, therefore, is unjust to Gen. Miles. But the reader must see the card:

RALEIGH, N. C., Nov. 4th, 1868.

On Saturday last I asked Jno. A. Hyman, Esq., of Warren county, if it was necessary to send troops to Warren county to have a fair election on the 3rd inst. Mr. H. replied he thought not, but would let me know during the day. Late in the evening I received a dispatch from Mr. H., a copy of which he has, informing me that all was quiet, and no troops were needed. I, however, had the troops ordered there on my own responsibility, well knowing the temper of the people of Warren county, and that the presence of troops would do no harm if they could do no good. They were only sent there for peace and protection.

JNO. T. DEWEESE, M. C.

"RALEIGH, Nov. 2, P. M.

To-night a large meeting of negroes was addressed by a number of radical speakers, among whom was Joseph W. Holden. He said the Democratic party was composed of the dirty, low, mean scum, the scoundrels, rascals and thieves of creation; which was loudly applauded."

We find the foregoing in the Raleigh special telegraphic correspondence of the New York Herald. Who can doubt, after such a wild display, but that the "turpentine" ebullition of this splenetic boy was correctly reported. The naughty young man will live to be sorry for such an exhibition, if he is not already. We desire simply to put him on record. "Curses, like young chickens, come home to roost."

LANDS IN EDGECOMBE.—We are glad to learn that the price of lands is looking up in Edgecombe. Three parcels of land, in that county, which sold, last winter, for $3,255, were sold, recently, for $5,383. This is a good showing.

NEW GOODS! NEW GOODS!

AT HOME AGAIN!!

WITH A HOUSE RAMMED AND PACKED FULL OF

NEW FALL AND WINTER GOODS,

FOR

1868.

COME TO

A. CREECH'S!

For Ladies' Goods! For Gentlemen's Goods! For Misses' Goods! For Boys' Goods! Ditto for Children!

MY STOCK IS LARGE AND VERY COMPLETE. Allow me to say that you see some very strange advertisements. Some say they bought goods before the rise—some after the decline—some just in time—some in luck again—some buy goods cheaper than anybody else—some selling goods at unprecedentedly low prices—some controlling the trade, &c., &c., and all such stuff. What a lucky set of individuals!
Now just let ME tell you, that there is more humbug than poetry in all this. Don't every man, woman and child know that it is humbug—large enough to be seen even with one eye shut? So let them talk, puff and blow, but STOP, LOOK OUT! HANDS OFF! and show your good judgment by to buy your goods. I intend to run through this campaign with my motto, to give each and every individual value received for their support!
A fine opportunity for the ladies to exercise their inalienable rights, as well as the gentlemen. Don't stop until you COME TO CREECH'S. You will find me at R. Smith's corner, attending to my business, always ready to give you the worth of your money.

At Wake Forest, N. C., at the residence of Mrs. V. A. Sanders, on the 3rd of November, Major T. A. MARTIN, of Franklin Co., in the 28th year of his age.

Another spirit has winged its way to the bright realms above. Another form has been gathered to the bosom of its Creator. On Tuesday morning, at 7 o'clock, Maj. T. A. Martin breathed his last, after a long and tedious illness. A deep sorrow pervades the neighborhood in which he resided; for he was kind, obliging and noble, a good neighbor and a sincere friend, beloved by all.—Death has claimed him in the flower of his manhood, but his many friends will ever cherish with affection his memory. A Most Wonderful and Successful Invention!

NEW METHOD OF WASHING CLOTHES WITHOUT LABOR.

THE AUTOMATIC
CLOTHES WASHER AND BOILER.
Awarded the highest Testimonial wherever exhibited in the United States.

THIS BOILER OPERATES UPON PURELY philosophical principles.
It is self-acting, and dispenses entirely with labor and the wear of clothes.
The hot suds and steam, by the action of fire, are driven up through tubes, poured upon the Clothes, and forced through the fabric with astonishing rapidity, cleansing it perfectly without any rubbing. It has been thoroughly tested and pronounced unequalled as a Clothes Washer by those who have used it.
All fabrics, from the finest laces to the bed-blanket, can be washed perfectly and with ease without the aid of the rubbing-board. For Flannels it is invaluable, as the rubbing, rolling, and pressing process, must necessarily full them, more or less.
It is truly a labor and clothes saving inventing. Washing will no longer be a hardship, and washing day no longer a terror and a dread to housewives.
The invention can be used in any house, and the low price of the article places it within the reach of every family.
If the directions are strictly followed, success is certain.
The saving in the wear of clothes will very soon pay for the outlay.
It is estimated that 200 to 300 gallons of boiled suds pass through the clothes in thirty minutes; this being the longest time required for cleansing a boiler full of clothes.
Having purchased the exclusive interest and control of the Automatic Clothes Washer and Boiler, for North Carolina, we have established a depot in Raleigh, where we are prepared to fill orders or to sell COUNTY RIGHTS. Letters addressed to us at Raleigh, N. C., or Portsmouth, Va., will receive prompt attention.

LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY,
NEW YORK.
Office, No. 69, Liberty Street.

The Original Joint Stock Life Insurance Company in the United States.

The business of this Company is EXCLUSIVELY confined to the insurance of first-class healthy lives.

THE DISTINCTIVE FEATURE

of the Stock system of Life Insurance, as opposed to the MUTUAL, is a low rate of premium for a stated sum assured, which is IMMEDIATE, SECURED, and CERTAIN; in lieu of a high rate of premium for a promised dividend which is REMOTE, CONTINGENT, and UNCERTAIN; this so-called dividend being merely a return of a portion of the excessive and unnecessary premium charged in the first instance.

ILLUSTRATION.

Suppose that an individual aged thirty desires to devote $200 a year for the purpose of effecting an insurance on his life; this amount will immediately secure him in the "Universal" the sum of $11,751, payable on his decease. This sum, paid to a Company charging the ordinary mutual rates, would secure him the sum of $8,474.
The difference between these sums ($3,277) is exactly the same as an immediate bonus or addition to the policy to be paid by the former office to the holder of the policy in case of the early death of the insured. It is true that if the insured live to old age, live long enough, and have his periodical dividends added to his policy, the sum may equal or surpass that above named; but it must not be forgotten that the chance of early death is the very thing the applicant desires to insure against, and consequently the greater the sum immediately secured, contingent on this event, the greater the advantage to the policy-holder.
To illustrate the importance to the policy-holder of low premiums in more general terms it may be stated that by a reduction of twenty-five per cent in the rate of premium, the same amount of money will secure a policy thirty-three and one-third per cent greater and likewise that a reduction of twenty-five per cent. in the rate of premium is precisely equivalent to an annual cash dividend of thirty three and one-third per cent., payable in advance, or to a dividend of forty-five per cent. payable at the end of five years.
By the Stock plan the full cash effect of the premium is immediately secured to the insured, the Company taking all the risk. By the Mutual plan, the full value in insurance of the premium paid is not secured to the policy-holder, who takes a portion of the risk himself.

FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 6, 1868.

THE STATE.

We forbear any expression of opinion as to the probable result in North Carolina, until we shall have heard from the Western Counties. The East has, very generally, done gloriously. If the white men of the West have acquitted themselves half so manfully, the State is redeemed from the infamy of Radicalism. We shall probably know to morrow. At present, we are hopeful.

Only such returns are incorporated in our table as are authentically ascertained.

FOURTH DISTRICT.

We are yet without any returns from Granville or Chatham. We presume that we are again to have a carpet-bag misrepresentative from the District, though he returns by such a reduced majority as must "cut his comb" considerably. If the other counties of this District had done as well as Johnston, Franklin and Wake, all would have been well.

Col. Rogers has endeared himself more than ever to the true men of the District by his active, zealous and nearly successful labors.

WAKE COUNTY.

We gave the Congressional vote in this county, on yesterday. The following was the vote for President, viz:

G. T. Stronach, Commission Merchant, makes an important announcement to Planters. Calcutta Bagging at 23½ cts. per yard.

FRIENDS OF TEMPERANCE.—The second Lecture before Crescent Council will be delivered, to-night, by the Rev. Thos. H. Pritchard, D. D., at their Hall, in the Masonic building, at 7½ o'clock. The public are invited to attend.

RESPITED.—We understand that "Gov." Holden has granted a respite to the negro soldier, Willis, condemned to be hung this day, for four weeks.

MARRIAGE.—The Senior Editor had the pleasure, on yesterday, of uniting in the bands of wedlock our tried and trusted Conservative colored friend, Stephen Worth, of this city, to Winney Worth, late of Massachusetts, at the residence of Oliver Roane. They are both natives of Randolph county, and knew each other well. Eleven years ago, Winney went to Massachusetts, where she has resided until recently. For two years they have been in correspondence, and, finding her inclined to return to North Carolina, they agreed to be one. They left on the afternoon train to visit their friends in Randolph. Gov. Worth, Maj. Bagley, Dr. Roberts, the ladies of the Governor's family, and a number of our respectable colored people, were interested witnesses of the ceremony. May they live long and happily together!

THE New York Times, one day, tells us that the election of Grant will be followed by "a return to enlightened statesmanship"—to "a strong, consistent, kind and conciliatory policy toward the South." The next day, the same paper gives us to understand that negro domination will be enforced at the point of the bayonet, and social respectability for the carpet-baggers and scallawags established by a company of dragoons in every county in the South. The two systems can't stand together—which are we to expect?

REMARKABLE FREAK OF NATURE.—We are credibly informed by a gentleman of this city who has seen the wonder, that there is now living on Wrightsville Sound a negro child, which, though four years old, has never walked a single step. It body is but 31 inches in length, whilst its head is perfectly enormous, and is larger than the largest man's, measuring 27 inches in circumference, and 14 inches from the forehead to the back portion of the top. Its mother and father are both healthy negroes, and the mother has borne three children since this, her first born, all of who are perfectly formed and in sound and excellent health. The child eats but little and its diet is of the lightest character.

These facts can be vouched for, and are as true as they are strange.—Wilmington Journal.

NORTH CAROLINA ELECTIONS.

PERSON.

This county is redeemed. Seymour and Blair, and Brown, for Congress, carry the county by a handsome majority. Particulars not yet to hand.

IREDELL.

The vote, in this county, with three precincts to hear from, (which will not materially vary the result) stands: Seymour and Blair 1,082; Grant 593. Shober 1,055; Boyden 735. Democratic loss of about 200.

ALEXANDER.

Partial returns from this county indicate about 150 Democratic majority.

FORSYTHE.

The Radical majority in this county is 465,—a Democratic gain of 337. Leah gets a few more votes than Grant.

CABARRUS.

Official: Seymour and Blair 1,111; Grant 940. Democratic loss of about 50 votes.

CATAWBA.

Seymour and Blair 1,181; Grant and Colfax 488. For Congress: Shober 1,120, Boyden 501.

NASH.

Democratic majority in the county 310. Democratic gain of 3 votes.

ALAMANCE.

A friend, writing us from Graham, thus communicates the result in Alamance, and the infamous and rascally means which were used to accomplish it. We shall have more to say of this matter, hereafter:

"The vote in Alamance stands: Democrats 1,055; Radicals 1,102,—giving a Radical majority of 47 votes in the county. The Radical success in this county has been accomplished entirely by the controllers of the North Carolina Railroad. Negroes from all along the line of road voted at Graham precinct. The white mechanics and workmen at the Railroad Shops were compelled to vote the Radical ticket, or lose their employment, and negroes were actually detailed to watch the white men of Company Shops, with instructions to report all of them who voted the Democratic ticket. Mr. John Whitsett, James Houston and Henry Bason were DISCHARGED from the employment of the N. C. R. R. Co., this morning, because they dared to act as freemen and vote the Democratic ticket. I will write you again when I have more time, in regard to the means which have been used in Alamance county, to secure the triumph of the mongrel ticket."

GALLANT CALDWELL!

The Democratic majority in this county is nearly 400—a gain for us of about 150. Maj. W. H. Malone is elected to the House of Representatives, vice Col. J. C. Harper, banned. Maj. Avery is doubtless elected from the Senatorial District, vice E. W. Jones, Esq., banned. Durham for Congress runs fully up to the Presidential ticket.

CRAVEN.

A gain for the Democrats of some 50 or 60 votes in this county.

PITT.

Pitt has come out gloriously. The Democratic majority is 89—a gain of 598.

COLUMBUS.

Complete: Seymour 961; Grant 512—a Democratic gain of 62.

SAMPSON.

All but three precincts give 572 Democratic majority. The county is expected to go Democratic by 700. If so, a gain of over 500.

CUMBERLAND.

Glorious Cumberland! The county goes handsomely for the Democrats—showing a gain of nearly 700.

NORTHAMPTON.

Martin's ⋈ Roads gives Judge Barnes 85 majority and Seymour and Blair 61 majority—a large gain for the Conservatives.

WARREN.

All but one precinct heard from. Poll: Seymour 961, Grant 2,117, Rogers 962, Deweese 2,109. About the same as at last election.

HARNETT.

Official: Seymour 789, Grant 645—a gain of 105 votes. For Congress: McKay 789, Dockery 645. For the Senate: Oates 789, Ballard 645. Col. Ben. C. Williams, Dem., is elected to the House of Representatives, vice Neill S. Stewart, banned. Poll: Williams 793, Turner (mileage man) 633.—Hurrah for Harnett!

LENOIR.

Official: Grant 1,213, Seymour 891.—Heaton's majority for Congress is 353.

HERTFORD.

Hertford does well. Cobb, Radical, for Congress, has only 12 majority over Judge Barnes. Grant's majority is 31—a Democratic gain of 249 votes.

LINCOLN.

Seymour's majority 113,—a gain of 152.

GASTON.

Radical majority about the same as last year—200.

UNION.

Reported Democratic majority of 200—a gain of 231.

RUTHERFORD, &c.

We have rumors of considerable Democratic gains in Rutherford and Cleveland.

TOASTS TO THE SUB AND MAID.—When the facetious Earl of Stair was English Ambassador in Holland, he gave frequent parties, to which were invited the Foreign Diplomatic Corps—not excepting the French Ambassador. The last returned the compliment, and always invited the English and Austrian Ministers. On one of these occasions, the French Ambassador proposed, smiling, the following toast:

To the rising sun, my master, (alluding to the device of Louis XIV.)

The Austrian, replying in the same pleasant manner, drank to his mistress, the Empress Queen:

To the good moon and the first stars.

All eyes were turned to the Englishman, who drank to the health of his master, thus:

To Joshua, who made the sun and moon stand still.

THE NEW ATLANTIC CABLE.

The London papers report that the manufacture of the new Atlantic telegraph which is to be submerged between Brest and New York is making satisfactory progress. The cable is almost identical in construction with those which were completed in 1866, the only difference being that the diameter of the conducting copper core is slightly greater, and the outside wires are of homogeneous Bessemer steel, galvanized, having a breaking strain of about one thousand pounds, while the wires outside the existing Atlantic lines have a breaking strain of only about eight hundred pounds. Sir James Anderson, who will command the Great Eastern during the expedition, has made the following observations regarding the Newfoundland Banks: By keeping in the five hundred fathom line upon the Milne Bank, and around the Southern edge of the Grand Bank, there is no possibility of ice or any other agency that can be suggested injuring the cable. The Northern edge of the Grand Bank was avoided because it is uncertain at what depth the icebergs ground. They are said, upon good authority, to ground at times in ninety fathoms. It is not certain at what depth the vessels employed in the seal trade may sometimes choose to drop an anchor for the purpose of keeping in the track of the ice floes. These dangers are avoided by the track chosen for the proposed cable, and I am justified, by my own experience, in saying that the track from the Southern edge of the Grand Banks to St. Pierre, and thence to the place of landing in America, is entirely free from any danger of ice, and does not cross any anchorage resorted to by the fleet of fishing vessels.

The breaking strain of the new steel cable will be seven and a half tons, and the strain required for submersion need not be more than fourteen hundred pounds. Even if at any time it be necessary to haul up any portion of it already laid, the strain need not exceed a ton and a half in the deepest water. The weight of copper forming the conduct of the existing Atlantic cables is three hundred pounds. The Great Eastern has arrived at Sheerness, whence she will proceed with the cable probably in the end of next June. After leaving the Medway she will go to Brest to finish coaling, and will thence start on the telegraphic expedition.

MR. SEWARD'S AUBURN SPEECH.—Secretary Seward's last political pronunciamento from Auburn has occasioned much talk here to-day. The general opinion is that it is made a little bit too late in the day, and that, with all its high professions of patriotism and purity, it is dictated mainly by a desire to bolster the declining fortunes of Sewardism by providing for Seward's friends in office when the administration of Andrew Johnson shall be no more. The local politicians here declare that the speech of Seward is very O'Beirnish, a term which needs some explanation. O'Beirne is a quondam friend of the President, who was a ferocious democrat until just before the October elections. He was President of the Conservative Army and Navy Union here, and Secretary of the Soldiers and Sailors' Democratic Convention in New York. At present he is Register of Wills in this District. A few days before the October elections he suddenly declared for Grant and Colfax, against the sentiment of the rest of his comrades composing the Army and Navy Union; and some of his friends say that his action was prompted by the desire to continue in office. This is a mere local item of course, but I quote it to show what is said of Seward. The latter's course in showing his hand at the eleventh hour is regarded as similar to O'Beirne's, though on a larger scale.—Wash. Cor. N. Y. Herald.

A CURIOUS DIVORCE ECLAIRCISSEMENT.—A curious matrimonial affair has just transpired in Brooklyn; the parties are not in high life nor known to fame, but their history is nevertheless interesting. Ten years ago a couple, recently married, moved from Boston to the city of Churches, where the husband set up in business and prospered. His business at his office was better than at home, for his married life was unhappy, and, about five years ago, the parties managed to secure a divorce. They gradually lost traces of each other, and during the past year each of them married, and each to a person who had been divorced.—The two husbands were thrown together, and a few weeks ago the one, who had married the divorced woman, invited the other home to dinner. Imagine the embarrassment when the happy husband introduced his wife to his friend. Both were too well bred to have a scene, and so the dinner passed off somewhat frigidly, but with no actual unhappiness.

The recipient of the dinner courtesy invited the other to go home with him soon after and partake of a family dinner, little thinking, as it happened, that he was to return the compliment in every particular. It turned out that each had married the divorced spouse of the other, and it was more satisfactory to them to know that each was entirely pleased with the arrangement. So much for the intricacies of matrimony.

When Sherman's army was at Raleigh in 1865, Gen. Blair had an office at Gen. W. R. Cox's residence. Gen. Cox had returned home from Lee's surrender and very often visited Blair. He came in Blair's office one day while Gen. Logan and Gen. Geary of the Federal army were in. Blair introduced him to them and the conversation was long and interesting. During the time Logan said in substance: "We have fought long and earnestly for the Union. The war is over and the Union restored and our brave opponents have surrendered. Let us be magnanimous and restore friendship, confidence and prosperity. They submit readily to the terms required of them. And (addressing Geary and Blair) let us, when we return home, oppose, publicly and privately, every radical, violent, proscriptive or partisan policy in restoring and reconstructing the government. Let us demand no harsher measures than abolition of slavery and obedience to the Constitution and existing laws." They all agreed promptly and fully. They all became popular leaders after their return home. John A. Logan is a violent radical member of Congress from Illinois and Geary is the ultra radical Governor of Pennsylvania. Frank P. Blair alone carried out his pledge and performed his duty faithfully. He is true to the flag he carried and generous to those he conquered.—Fayetteville Eagle.

GENERAL ELECTION RESULTS.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 5, M.

Grant's majority in Connecticut is 3,141. Total vote in the State 79 000.

Seymour's majority in New Jersey is about 2,000. The Congressional delegation stands three Democrats to two Republicans. The Democratic majority in the Legislature is six on joint ballot.

Present calculations give the Democrats seventy-five members of Congress—a gain of 27.

Californians here have no doubt but that the State has gone for the Democrats.

The Democrats lose five and gain three Federal Senators.

Dispatches from the Western States show nothing interesting beyond a general falling off from the Republican majorities as at first reported.

Liberal calculations give Seymour ninety-three Electoral votes.

SOUTH CAROLINA ELECTION—MORE NEGRO OUTRAGES—THEY SUFFER THE PENALTY.

COLUMBIA, Nov. 5, M.

Richland county gives a Radical majority of 1,250.

Columbia goes Radical by 288.

The counties of Anderson, Spartanaburg, Greenville, Lexington, Newberry, Pickens and Oconee go Democratic by large majorities.

The negroes at White Hall, Abbeville Co., fired on the whites at the polls. The fire was promptly and vigorously returned and one negro was killed and twelve wounded.

SECOND DISPATCH.

CHARLESTON, Nov. 5, M.

The returns from this State come in slowly. Anderson, Greenville, Spartanaburg, Newbury, Oconee and Pickens give large Democratic majorities.

In Abbeville the contest is close and result doubtful.

Columbia gives 258 Radical majority.

From the seaboard counties, which constitute the Republican strongholds, returns come in very slowly. It is impossible to state the general result in the State, but the indications are that the Republicans have carried it by a reduced majority.

The Democrats claim to have elected two Congressmen.

FROM WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 5, M.

Gen. Canby relieves Reynolds in command of the Department of Texas.

An early change in the Secretaryship of the Treasury is becoming probable.

MARKETS.

NEW YORK, Nov. 5, M.

Money 7, with commission of ¼ added. Gold 1.32½. North Carolinas 65¾; new 65.

Cotton quiet, 25½.

Turpentine a shade lower, 44. Rosin quiet.

Money becoming tighter.

Our Midnight Dispatches.

NORTH CAROLINA.

WILMINGTON, Nov. 5, P. M.

Returns so far show Democratic gains in nearly all of the Counties, but it is not generally thought that the gains are sufficient to overcome the former Radical majority of 20 000.

Shober (Conservative,) is certainly elected to Congress in the 6th District.

Partial returns from the 7th District indicate the election of Durham, (Conservative,)

HURRAH FOR GEORGIA.

AUGUSTA, Nov. 5, P. M.

Returns from forty-five counties foot up the Democratic majority at 24 000, with 87 counties to hear from. The Democrats claim the State by over forty thousand majority.

FROM ALABAMA.

MONTGOMERY, Nov. 5th, P. M.

No official returns have yet been received of the election in this State.

Registration and voting in negro counties was usually full, while the white counties in many instances had no opportunity of registering.

ELECTION RETURNS.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 5, P. M.

The Republicans elect California by from one thousand to fifteen hundred.

Axtell (Democrat) is elected to Congress.

Nevada goes one thousand Republican, and sends Fitch, Republican, to Congress.

Both parties claim Oregon.

Missouri gives Grant about 20,000 majority.

THE GEORGIA RIOTOUS RADICALS.

SAVANNAH, Nov. 5, P. M.

The negroes disbanded last night, but are again assembling at Telfair's plantation. They are said to have U. S. muskets, evidently newly furnished. The excitement continues. The citizens are on the alert for any alarm. Hopes are entertained that no collision will occur. Every precaution is taken by the civil and military authorities to prevent it.

Young Law, who was killed by the negroes on the night of the election, was buried to-day. A very large funeral. Another policeman died this evening, who was shot at the riot.

FROM WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 5, P. M.

Canby will act as Assistant Commissioner of the Freedmen's Bureau for Texas.

Manly telegraphs to Grant that the election was quiet throughout his Department, except at Augusta, where the military suppressed the disturbance, and at Savannah, where the Police restored quiet.

Schenck and Morgan have decided for no session of Congress this month.

The evening papers deny the rumors of a change in the Secretaryship of the Treasury.

Reynolds will resume command of his regiment, the 26th., now stationed at Austin.

NOTICE.

WHEREAS, ERASTUS H. RAY, AND Christiana D. Ray, his wife, on the 9th day of January, A. D., 1866, made and executed a mortgage to Robert G. Lewis to secure the sum, of two thousand, two hundred and seventy-nine dollars and forty cents, ($2,279 40,) payable to A. T. Stewart & Co., of the City of New York, which mortgage was recorded in the office of the Register of Wake County, on the 11th day of June, 1868, at 3 o'clock in the afternoon, in Book 26, page 104, and the above sum of $2,279 40 principal and eighteen dollars and twenty-four cents, ($18 24,) interest, is due on said mortgage on the 27th day of October—the day of the first publication of this notice; and whereas default has been made in the payment of the money secured by said mortgage, the said mortgage will be foreclosed by a sale of said premises, by virtue of the power contained in the mortgage, which sale will be made by the subscriber, at public Auction, at the Court House door, in the City of Raleigh, on the 7th day of November next, at one o'clock in the afternoon.

The following is a description of said mortgaged premises:

One Lot in the City of Raleigh, lying on Wilmington Street, purchased on the 26th day of December, 1860, by the said Erastus H. Ray of John Q. Adams, and described in said Adams' deed as lot No. 150 in plan of said City, upon which there is a Brick House erected; being 30 feet 7 inches East on Wilmington Street, and fronting on Wilmington Street 30 feet with all the appurtenances thereunto belonging; subject, however, to a mortgage heretofore executed to R. T. Moore, for the sum of one thousand dollars and interest.

Also a certain other lot in the City of Raleigh, adjoining the lots lately owned by Albert Johnson, W. W. Vass and W. D. Johnson, on the west side of New Street, running West 164 feet to W. W. Vass's line, thence South 50 feet to Albert Johnson's line, thence Eastward along said Johnson's line 164 feet to New Street, thence with said Street to the beginning: said lot being half of the lot purchased by W. W. Vass and W. D. Johnson of Thomas Bell, and by them conveyed on first October, 1865, to E. H. Ray, the latter deed registered in Register's office of Wake County, Book No. 23, page 741.

Also 4 tract of Land lying in the County of Wake adjoining the lands of W. H. Cunningim, the late Wm. Hill, and others, bought by said E. H. Ray of John Ray, June 21st, 1867, and containing about 34 acres.

TERMS:—This property will be sold for CASH.

EXTENSIVE SALE OF REAL ESTATE.

PURSUANT TO A DECREE OF SUIT[illegible] Superior Court, we will expose to public sale, on the premises at 12 o'clock, M., on Thursday, the 26th day of November, on a credit of six and twelve months, bond and approved security, that valuable plantation of the late Col. P. G. Evans, lying on the Yadkin River, at Hollsburg, in Davidson County, containing about 180 acres, more or less. A large proportion of said land is cleared and in a fine state of cultivation. The improvements consist of a number of plank houses formerly used as negro houses, barns, &c.

Also, a building Lot of 2 acres, with two small buildings on it. Also, an undivided one-third interest in about 700 acres, more or less, of fine farming Land lying around Hollsburg on the Yadkin River, upon which is a fine Water Power unsurpassable in the Yadkin Basin.

We will also sell, at the County House door in Newbern, on Wednesday, 9th of December, at 12 o'clock, on same terms, that magnificent plantation upon which the late Col. Evans resided, situated 7 miles from Newbern, containing about 5 000 acres, known as the Garden place, or Beechwood. This is one of the very best places in North Carolina. The lands are of the very finest quality known in the Eastern part of the State, which is famous for its productiveness. The whole place is underlaid with one vein marl of immense quantities of which Col. Evans used on the plantation. The marl is near the surface and easy to get at, and in inexhaustible quantities. There is a flourishing young Orchard on the place. Col. Evans having set out 4,000 Fruit Trees of the choicest varieties in 1865-'66. The improvements consist of a frame Dwelling House with five rooms, and all necessary out-houses for servants, carriage-house, &c., a large proportion of the place is ditched and drained, and under cultivation, and is admirably adapted to cotton, corn, oats, hay, and all the products of this climate. There are also on the place large quantities of pine and cypress timber. Bryce's Creek, which is navigable, runs through the place, and on it and near the dwelling House is a very fine water-power where Col. E. had large Grist and Saw Mills, which were destroyed during the war.

Also, the Long Lake Plantation, situated about ten miles from Newbern and three from the Gaston Plantation, containing about 3,700 acres, more or less. It has upon it a large Dwelling House. The lands are of the finest quality and underlaid with marl. A large proportion of this tract is in Timber of the best quality.

Also, the Speight or Cutler tract, immediately opposite Newbern—across the Trent river—(upon which is located James City)—consisting of about 500 acres, more or less. This land is nearly all cleared and in cultivation, and is valuable for being so near the City of Newbern.

Also, 100 Shares of Stock in the Atlantic & N. C. Railroad, and 6 shares in the Clermont Bridge Company.

We will sell, on Thursday, 10th of December, in Morehead City, on terms above mentioned, the following City lots:

THE NATIONAL DEMOCRATIC CONVEETION!

THE PLATFORM.

"The Democratic party, in National Convention assembled, reposing its trust in the intelligence, patriotism, and discriminating justice of the people, standing upon the Constitution as the foundation and limitation of the powers of the government, and the guaranty of the liberties of the citizen, and recognizing the questions of slavery and secession as having been settled, for all time to come, by the war of the voluntary action of the Southern States in constitutional conventions assembled, and never to be renewed or re-agitated, do, with the return of peace, demand:

First.—Immediate restoration of all the States to their rights in the Union, under the Constitution, and of civil government to the American people.

Second.—Amnesty for all past political offences, and the regulation of the elective franchise in the States by their citizens.

Third.—Payment of the public debt of the United States as rapidly as practicable; all moneys drawn from the people by taxation, except as much as is requisite for the necessities of the Government, economically administered, being honestly applied to such payment, and where the obligations of the government do not expressly state upon their face, or the law under which they were issued does not provide, that they shall be paid in coin, they ought in right and in justice, to be paid in the lawful money of the United States.

Fourth.—Equal taxation to every species of property according to its real value, including government bonds and other public securities.

Fifth.—One currency for the government and the people, the laborer and the office-holder, the pensioner and the soldier, the producer and the bond holder.

Sixth.—Economy in the administration of the government; the reduction of the standing army and navy; the abolition of the Freedmen's Bureau (great cheering) and all political instrumentalities designed to secure negro supremacy; simplification of the system and discontinuance of inquisitorial modes of assessing and collecting internal revenue, so that the burden of taxation may be equalized and lessened, the credit of the government and the currency made good; the repeal of all enactments for enrolling the militia into national forces in time of peace; and a tariff for revenue upon foreign imports, and such equal taxation under the internal revenue laws as will afford incidental protection to domestic manufactures, and as will, without impairing the revenue, impose the least burden upon and best promote and encourage the great industrial interests of the country.

Seventh.—Reform of abuses in the Administration, the expulsion of corrupt men from office, the abrogation of useless offices, the restoration of rightful authority to and the independence of the executive and judicial departments of the government, the subordination of the military to the civil power, to the end that the usurpations of Congress and the despotism of the sword may cease.

Eighth.—Equal rights and protection for naturalized and native born citizens at home and abroad; the assertion of American nationality which shall command the respect of foreign powers, and furnish an example and encouragement to people struggling for national integrity, constitutional liberty and individual rights; and the maintenance of naturalized citizens against the absolute doctrine of immutable allegiance and the claim of foreign powers to punish them for alleged crime committed beyond their jurisdiction.

In demanding these measures and reforms we arraign the Radical party for its disregard of right, and the unparalleled oppression and tyranny which have marked its career. After the most solemn and unanimous pledge of both Houses of Congress to prosecute the war exclusively for the maintenance of the government and the preservation of the Union under the Constitution, it has repeatedly violated that most sacred pledge, under which alone was rallied the noble volunteer army which carried our flag to victory.

Instead of restoring the Union, it has, so far as in its power, dissolved it, and subjected ten States, in time of profound peace, to military despotism and negro supremacy.

It has nullified there the right of trial by jury; it has abolished the habeas corpus, that most sacred writ of liberty; it has overthrown the freedom of speech and the press; it has substituted arbitrary seizures and arrests, and military trials and secret star-chamber inquisitions for the constitutional tribunals; it has disregarded in time of peace the right of the people to be free from searches and seizures; it has entered the post and telegraph offices, and even the private rooms of individuals, and seized their private papers and letters without any specific charge or notice of offence, as required by the organic law; it has converted the American capitol into a bastile; it has established a system of spies and official espionage, to which no constitutional monarchy of Europe would dare to resort; it has abolished the right of appeal on important constitutional questions to the supreme judicial tribunal, and threatens to curtail or destroy its original jurisdiction, which is irrevocably vested by the Constitution, while the learned Chief Justice has been subjected to the most atrocious calumnies merely because he would not prostitute his high office to the support of the false and partisan charges preferred against the President. Its corruption and extravagance have exceeded anything known in history, and by its frauds and recklessness, it has nearly doubled the burden of the debt created by the war. It has stripped the President of his constitutional power of appointment even of his own Cabinet. Under its repeated assaults the pillars of government are rocking on their base, and should it succeed in November next and inaugurate its President, we will meet, as a subjected and conquered people, amid the ruins of liberty and the scattered fragments of the Constitution; and we do declare and resolve that ever since the people of the United States threw off all subjection to the British Crown, the privilege and trust of suffrage have belonged to the several States, and have been granted, regulated and controlled exclusively by the political power of each State respectively, and that any attempt by Congress, on any pretext whatever, to deprive any State of this right or to interfere with its exercise, is a flagrant usurpation of power which can find no warrant in the Constitution, and is sanctioned by the people will subvert our form of government, and can only end in a single centralized and consolidated government, in which the separate existence of the States will be entirely obliterated, and an unqualified despotism be established in place of a federal union of co-equal States; and that we regard the reconstruction acts (so called) of Congress as usurpations, and unconstitutional, revolutionary and void; that our soldiers, who carried the flag of our country to victory against a most gallant and determined foe, must ever be gratefully remembered, and all the guarantees given in their favor must be faithfully carried into execution.

That the public lands should be distributed as widely as possible among the people and should be disposed of either under the preemption or homestead laws, and sold in reasonable quantities, and to none but actual occupants, at the minimum price established by the government. When grants of the public lands may be allowed necessary for the encouragement of important public improvements, the proceeds of the sale of such lands, and not the lands themselves, should be so applied.

That the President of the United States, Andrew Johnson (applause) in exercising the power of his high office in resisting the aggressions of Congress upon the constitutional rights of the States and the people, is entitled to the gratitude of the whole American people, and in behalf of the Democratic party we tender him our thanks for his patriotic efforts in that regard."

Resolved, That we approve of the platform of principles adopted by the National Democratic Convention. It falters in no double sense—its language is explicit and its meaning clear. The issues presented to the country are plainly and unmistakably defined, and, with a free and fair election, we confidently believe they will be endorsed by a large majority of the people—and with that endorsement must come such a change in the administration of the National Government as will restore the Constitution and give peace, harmony and prosperity to the country, and especially to the down-trodden States of the South.

Resolved, That it is our earnest desire and intention to bring about these wholesome and necessary changes by the peaceful means of the ballot-box—and all efforts to produce a contrary belief, coming from what quarter they may, are but the tricks of interested partizans of a desperate political faction, bent upon perpetuating its power by any means and at all hazards. They are attempting to alarm the people of this State by the false cry of revolution and war, threatening them at the same time with military force, while, in other States of the South they have not hesitated to take from the people the elections of electors of President and Vice President, and to confer it upon Legislatures, the members of which were elected under military rule without freedom of choice and with no regard to the question of the Presidency, in order to secure the electoral votes of such States for the Radical candidates, in disregard and defiance of the just rights of the people of such States, and of the whole country.

Resolved, That it is our frank purpose now, and has been since the close of our late civil war, to accept and abide by, in good faith and without disturbance, the legitimate fruits and consequences of that war; to yield to the Government of the United States a cheerful submission and allegiance, and to perform all the obligations of good citizens to their rightful Government. And we do, therefore, take in asking recognition on terms of equality in that grand constellation of States which constitutes our Federal Union, we do so with no hostile intent; on the contrary, we wish to share its benefits and its duties; to rebuild our waste places under the protection of its flag; to re-establish the old era of good feeling in our common country; to thwart the designs of unpatriotic men everywhere, who seek to perpetuate discord and division; and to participate in the blessings as well as the burdens of the government.—Resolutions adopted by the State Democratic Convention of North Carolina, Aug. 14, 1868.

NORTH CAROLINA PAPERS.

DAILY AND WEEKLY JOURNAL, WILMINGTON, N. C.

This is the oldest Daily in the State, a leading Democratic journal, located in the largest commercial city in the State, and is a large and ably conducted newspaper. Its circulation is extensive and increasing, and it is a capital advertising sheet. We have no better paper in the State. Price of Daily, $10 per annum. Weekly $3. Address ENGELHARD & PRICE,

Wilmington, Sept. 4 tf Proprietors.

THE MORNING STAR, WILMINGTON, N. C.

This is a young Daily, still in its first volume and, by its sprightliness and energy, has a growing circulation. It is a warm supporter of Seymour and Blair, and is doing good service. It is a good medium for advertisers and merits the patronage of the public. Price of Daily $5 per year. Address W. H. BERNARD,
